FARMVILLE.

Mrs. Booker, lady matron of the Normal, is constantly contributing to the pleasures of the young ladies under her charge, and as hostess is always most gracious and graceful. The every day bearing of such a woman is of immense service to those who come in contact with her. Someone has said that 'manner is eloquence' and we all know that refined and tactful courtesies give real charm to this life.

Mrs. P. C. Mason, of Lynchburg, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. R. Berkley.

Dr. and Mrs. Gills after an extended and pleasant tour, are at home again.

Mrs. Graham, wife of Rev. Graham, missionary to China, has been the guest of Rev. H. Tucker Graham, pastor of the Presbyterian church here.

Mrs. Archer Morgan, of Jonesboro, Arkansas, has returned home after a pleasant visit in Farmville.

The Normal girls, always graceful of motion, have taken on new spring of step now that the grand lithic walk has been finished.

The new Methodist church will next be finished and then we will forgive and forget all that wet weather-confusion so long prevailing on High Street.

It is somewhat wonderful that a man sleeps up on the farm can so soon catch on to the alertness of a well-trained auctioneer after being connected with one of our warehouses. The farmer has a varied experience, how ver, and generally catches readily on to what he undertaker.

The hunter look worn and weary when they come in from a day's campaign, but as it it is all for fun no one is heard to complain.

Some people say they prefer sausage half beef and half hog, but as for me give me all hog or nothing. And I am not 'stuck' on spare ribs that are too spare. I was impressed with this sign in one of our restaurants—"If we please you, tell others if not, tell us." That's well said.

Mrs. Dr. Pratt has moved to the home of Mr. Baxter Davis, where she is prepared to entertain a number of boarders.

The Presbyterians in Staunton, the Baptists in Richmond and the Methodists in Portsmouth have been all in search of a spiritual feast.

There is no trouble in Farmville about having a big house built but when it comes to a chicken coop the builder is not to be found. The day of small things seems to be relegated to the past.

President McAllister, of Hampden Sidney, has been to New York of late looking after the interests of the venerable school. I hope he will yet catch a million, build a trolley from Farmville to the 'Hill,' have 500 students in attendance and make the place so attractive that the Union Theological Seminary authorized will want to come back. The Hampden Sidney foot ball team must be a little too strenuous. A noble boy received his death blow on that field last session and now we are told that a number belonging to the same team are disfigured and disabled, though none dead as yet. Fun should'nt bear such likeness to fight.

We are looking to old Buckingham at this season for deer meat, as well as birds, turkeys, spare ribs and sausage. I am reminded by present prices to say that all may justly be classed as 'dear' meat.

Notwithstanding the fact that the immortal Lee surrendered at Appomattox, the county should be represented at Jamestown as should all the counties of the State. To my mind it is simply inexplicable that the Boards of Supervisors should hesitate in this regard. Poverty is a poor plea, for we may be too poor to take advantage of the splendid opportunity. Cultivating poor land is an expensive business and the same is as true of counties as of individuals. Members of Boards of Supervisors who can't conscientiously vote to improve the conditions of the people they represent should resign and retire to the profounded privacy of private life. This is no day for death-dealing conservatism.

Dr. Jones, of the Normal faculty, is doing good work among the public schools of Prince Edward. Dr. Milledge is winning golden opinions from all who are privileged to hear him in the class room. Miss Snow is charming as hostess and is ever giving pleasant evenings to her friends. The Y. W. C. A. of the school is in a flourishing condition.

The recent visit of Rev. S. H. Thompson, of Bluefield, was a source of genuine pleasure to his friends.

Farmville would lay a flower on the grave of Dr. Abbitt, the "beloved physician." It is a profound mystery that such a man should have been cut down at the noon tide of his usefulness. The most inexplicable thing in all history, however, is that a prayer of the son of God should have been unanswered by the Fat er.

Our Methodist friends with one accord, as well as the citizens of the town in general, welcome the return of Rev. Mr. Hatcher.

Lingering Cold.

Withstood other treatment but quickly cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"Last winter I caught a very severe cold which lingered for weeks," says J. Urquhart, of Zephyr, Ontario. "My cough was very dry and harsh. The local dealer recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and guaranteed it, so I gave it a trial. One small bottle of it cured me. I believe Chamberlains Cough Remedy to be the best I have ever used."

J. R. Atwood, Appomattox; R. J. Carter, Prospect E. ; F. Glover, Evergreen.

Harry Thaw is clamoring for a quick trial. It would help some too, if it could be made a quiet one.

Where was Addicks when the gas went out?

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, beer, wine and cider, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. size.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

DR. H. SANCHE & CO., New York City:—Dear Sirs: I was relieved of Asthma and indigestion of twenty-five years' standing by the use of Oxydonor, of my having used it for only three months. I feel very grateful for relief, and all that was left me to do was to die. This was four years ago and I enjoy better health than I have enjoyed for many years, and am enjoying abundant health at this time.

Female Weakness

"Last Fall," writes Mrs. S. G. Bailey, of Tunnelton, W. Va., "I was going down by inches, from female disease, with great pain. After taking Cardui, Oh! My! How I was benefited! I am not well yet, but am so much better that I will keep on taking Wine of Cardui till I am perfectly cured."

Despite the envious attacks of jealous enemies and rivals, Cardui still holds supreme position today [as in the past 70 years] for the relief and cure of female diseases. It stops pain, tones up the organs, regulates the functions, and aids in the replacement of a misplaced organ.

ASHES OF ROSES.

As we watch the sunset's die,
Now the day closes.
With quivering lip and weary sigh,
Ashes of roses.

The rose budded with the spring
And its heart encloses,
When touched by Autumn's crimson wing,
Scatter Ashes of roses.

Warm love in our hearts doth lie,
And in dreams reposes.
Dreams of bird, field, sea and sky,
Now the day closes,
And in our hearts must scattered lie,
Ashes of roses.

Music that quivered, swelled and grew
Now clashes and closes,
Love is this all the gift left by you?
Just ashes of roses!

The gray after the sunset's bright hue
And the dream closes.
Frost after the sun flowers and dew,
And ashes of roses.

Now that Farmville can be heard from so readily by phone it is strange that planters do not find out when more tobacco is being put on the market, than buyers can handle, and not force it on them in such large quantities as they did last week.

Corn sold for $3 a barrel two small cows sold one for $27.50 and the other for $24, two good young horses sold, for $125 and the other for $100. A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home for seven years, and it has always proved to be a reliable remedy. We have found that it would do more than the manufacturers claim for it. It is especially good for croup and whooping cough.

Thanksgiving will soon be here again, yes, and it will, no doubt receive a hearty welcoming, for it means a holiday. A day of rest and pleasure for our boys and girls. How many of you know when and by whom Thanksgiving was celebrated? It was first celebrated by the Puritans forty years ago in 1865 which was the first service after the close of the Civil War. There are many things about this country today with which even a good natured person can find fault but a cursory contrast of the condition of the country, as it was then, and as it is now, shows vast general improvement. Big preparations are being made in the kitchen for this occasion, and it is now that every member of the family be gathered together and enjoy the blessings of the day.

Evans—Clark.

Last Wednesday Nov. 21 at 3.30 p. m. the home of Mr. Jim Clark was the scene of a beautiful marriage, when Mr. Charlie Evans led to the alter Miss Imogen, daughter of Mr. Clark. Rev. P. T. Warren performed the sacred ceremony under an arch of evergreens which made them one. The house was beautifully decorated, and first came the four ribbon girls, little Misses Manie Clark and Emma Jennings carrying one end of the ribbon, then followed Misses Mattie and Bessie Clark carrying the other which formed an aisle for the couple to march in. The ribbon girls were dressed in white and blue Then came the bride and groom, she was attired in a beautiful suit of Alice blue silk, with hat and gloves carrying a bouquet of bride's roses, while the groom wore the conventional black. The popularity of the couple was shown by the large crowd who attended. After the ceremony, the bride and groom, with a number of friends and relatives drove to the home of his sister Mrs. J. H. Cheatham, where a elegant supper was served. Afterward the crowd was entertained by music and singing.

They have received many nice and useful presents, and our best wishes are for the couple a long and useful life.
